

Appointment of 19 Adjudication Officers

The Workplace Relations Commission was established on Thursday 01 October 2015.

On Tuesday 29 September 2015, in a written answer¹, then Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation Richard Bruton TD stated in respect of the Adjudication Officers of the new Workplace Relations Commission:

‘The WRC Adjudication Officers will comprise a diverse panel of adjudicators which will include experienced industrial relations and HR practitioners, employment lawyers and civil servants with appropriate skills/qualifications. This will include the current cohort of Rights Commissioners and Equality Officers along with an externally recruited panel of suitably qualified and experienced persons. The 19 Adjudication Officers, selected for appointment following an open competition conducted by the Public Appointments Service in December last year, have undergone intensive training and are now available for assignment. These Adjudicators, together with the pre-Establishment Day cohort of Equality Officers and Rights Commissioners who have been appointed as WRC adjudicators, will be working to provide efficient and effective adjudication on complaints and disputes’.

The 19 Adjudication Officers referred to above are:

Kevin Baneham
Ian Barrett
Louise Boyle
Pat Brady
Janine Breen
Marguerite Buckley
Aideen Collard
Emile Daly
Joe Donnelly
Patricia (Patsy) Doyle
Ray Flaherty
Shay Henry
Caroline McEnery
Michael McEntee
Penelope McGrath
Roger McGrath
Ian Moore
Niamh O'Carroll Kelly
Gerry Rooney

The above were formally appointed as Adjudication Officers by Richard Bruton TD on 01 October 2015. Their letters of appointment are attached.
